A TALE OF SACRIFICE.

A tale of sacrifice for their starving people in Eastern and Central Europe, such as has been rarely equalled in this country comes from Billings, Mont., where the small Jewish community has given up building a Synagogue, which it had planned erecting for several years, in order that every available dollar that can be raised will go for American Jewish relief work.

Max Friedwald, active in Jewish relief work in Billings, writes Henry H.

Rosenfelt, National Director of the American Jewish Relief Committee: "Because of the monthly collections taken up for Jewish Relief work, we are not able to build a little synagog, as we are too few and too poor to carry any other burdens. We have long ago decided that we will postpone the building of the synagog until our brethren do not need our assistance any more."

DMOWSKI EXPELLED FROM HIS PARTY.

Warsaw: (Jewish News Service).—Roman Dmowski, the noted anti-Semite and leader of anti-Jewish boycotts in Poland, has been formally expelled from his own party, the National Democrats.

The reasons for his expulsion are unknown. This step seems to put an end to Dmowski's political career.
